

Minutes
Board of Trustees Meeting
University of Central Florida
September 28, 2011

Chair Michael J. Grindstaff called the meeting of the board of trustees to order at 12:20 p.m. in the Live Oak Center on the UCF Orlando campus.

The following members attended the meeting: Trustees Calvet, Cook, Crofton, Florez, Garvy, Gilley, Marchena, McCann, and Sprouls.

WELCOME

Grindstaff welcomed the board members and called for approval of the July 21, 2011, board meeting minutes, which were approved as written.

Grindstaff called on Trustee Ray Gilley to give the Nominating and Governance Committee report.

NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

Gilley, chair of the Nominating and Governance Committee, presented the following item for board approval.

- NG-2 Vice Chairman Emeritus Status for Thomas Yochum – A motion was made and passed by the board approving the award of the title of Vice Chairman Emeritus to Thomas Yochum, charter member of the UCF Board of Trustees.

President John Hitt presented Trustee Yochum with a plaque and thanked him for his ten years of outstanding service to the university, including service as vice chair of the board of trustees.

Hitt welcomed new board member Robert Garvy, chair and CEO of INTECH, and presented him with a gold Pegasus pin.

REMARKS AND INTRODUCTIONS

Hitt announced that the University of Central Florida was ranked number four in “up-and-coming” schools in the country, according to U.S. News & World Report’s 2012 best colleges’ rankings. He reported that this is UCF’s highest ranking in the “up-and-coming” list, which recognizes national universities that “recently made the most promising and innovative changes in academics, faculty, students, campus, or facilities.”

Hitt noted that according to Forbes magazine, UCF is one of the top 50 most-affordable colleges and universities in the nation. At 42nd on the list, UCF was noted for its designation as a high-research university.

Hitt recognized the following faculty members for their accomplishments.

Dr. Joel Hartman, vice provost for Information Technologies and Resources, was selected as the recipient of the 2011 Sloan Consortium's A. Frank Mayadas Leadership Award, the highest individual recognition offered by the organization. The award acknowledges and celebrates leadership in online education. Dr. Hartman will receive this award on November 10th in Orlando.

Dr. Linda Walters is one of the best biology professors in the country, according to The Coastal and Estuarine Research Federation. It recently named Dr. Walters the William A. Niering Outstanding Educator of the Year. Hitt reported that she was also honored with the 2011 Florida Campus Compact Service-Learning Faculty Award for the state university sector. This award recognizes excellence in linking UCF courses with community needs.

Dr. H.G. Parsa, associate professor at the Rosen College of Hospitality Management, was awarded the John Wiley and Sons Lifetime Research Achievement Award by the International Council on Hotel, Restaurant, and Institutional Education. The award is only the second such recognition for a hospitality faculty member in the state of Florida.

Provost Tony Waldrop, a highly respected academic leader and researcher who recently completed his first year at UCF, has been promoted to provost and executive vice president.

Hitt noted that the UCF volleyball team is a recipient of the 2010-11 Team Academic Award from the American Volleyball Coaches Association. The award honors teams that have matched their dedication to the sport of volleyball with excellence in the classroom. To qualify for the award, the team must hold a cumulative grade point average of 3.3 for the academic year.

Finally, Hitt offered condolences to Trustee Olga Calvet on the loss of her mother earlier in the month. He also extended sympathies to Al Burnett, whose wife Nancy passed away over the weekend.
