Chairman Marcos Marchena called the meeting of the Board of Trustees to order at 1:17 p.m. in the Live Oak Event Center on the UCF Orlando campus.

Chairman Marchena reminded the board that the meeting was covered by the Florida Sunshine Law and that the public and press were invited to attend.

WELCOME

He welcomed the board members and called on Rick Schell, Associate Corporate Secretary, to call the roll. Schell determined that a quorum was present.

The following board members attended the meeting: Chairman Marcos Marchena, Vice Chair Robert Garvy, Ken Bradley, Clarence Brown, Joseph Conte, Nicholas Larkins, John Lord, Beverly Seay, William Self, John Sprouls, David Walsh, and William Yeargin. Trustee Alex Martins attended via teleconference.

PUBLIC COMMENT

There were no requests for public comment.

Marchena welcomed new trustee, John Lord. Marchena reported that Ray Gilley continued to serve as trustee about 14 months beyond the end of his term and after moving out of state. Marchena expressed his appreciation for Gilley’s level of commitment on behalf of the university.

MINUTES

Marchena called for approval of the May 18, 2017, and June 23, 2017, meeting minutes, which were approved.

Marchena called on President John C. Hitt for remarks and introductions.

REMARKS

Hitt welcomed and congratulated new board member, John Lord, who is a trustee of the Alfred I. duPont Trust and the past chair of the board of directors of the Nemours Foundation. Trustee Lord retired in 2000 from his position with Bank of America after a 32-year banking career to join the duPont Trust. Hitt presented him with a gold Pegasus pin and welcomed him to the board.
INTRODUCTIONS

Hitt congratulated the following members of the UCF community.

A. Students

The Association for Computing Machinery hosted the 41st World Finals of the International Collegiate Programming Contest. UCF won the national championship and placed 13th in the world. MIT, Rochester, UC Berkeley, Washington University, Cornell, Virginia Tech, and others came behind. Hitt referred the board to the complete list of rankings included in their meeting materials. He noted that Beverly Seay gave a presentation at the World Finals and also served as a deputy. Hitt thanked Seay for her support at the finals.

B. Faculty

In 2002-03, the Board of Trustees funded the trustee chairs initiative to retain and to attract exceptional faculty. There are currently eight UCF faculty members who hold trustee chairs. Three faculty members were selected as the 2017 Trustee Chairs. These chairs have five-year appointments and receive an annual stipend of $50,000 with the potential for renewal with sustained preeminence.

Sudipta Seal, a professor in the College of Engineering and Computer Science, was the only appointee able to attend the meeting. He joined UCF in 1997 and was recognized as a Pegasus Professor in 2012. He has served as the director of the Advanced Materials Processing Analysis Center and Nanoscience Technology Center since 2009, and he has served as the interim chair of Materials Science and Engineering since 2014.

Judy Simms-Cendan is the director of International Experiences and Associate Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at the UCF College of Medicine. Simms-Cendan’s leadership in providing healthcare to uninsured migrant farm workers earned her an inaugural award from the U.S. Public Health Service and the Inter-professional Education Collaborative.

Hitt recognized the following members of her team: Robin Kohn, Geraldine Luzincourt, Sven Normann, Erin Onge, Patrick Pabian, Jennifer Tucker, and Tracy Wharton.

Rebekah McCloud, the director of the University of Central Florida Student Development and Enrollment Services TRiO Center, announced that UCF will receive $3.8 million over five years for three TRiO Upward Bound program grants. McCloud was the primary proposal writer for the TRiO Upward Bound programs that are designed to assist low-income, first-generation high school students by providing a pipeline to post-secondary education.

Jerry Johnson is the co-director of the Institute for the Advancement of Research, Innovation and Practice in Rural Education. A national research report, “Why Rural Matters,” was released in March at the National Press Club in Washington D.C. as part of a Congressional briefing. Featured prominently on the cover of the report is Johnson's UCF affiliation.
C. Staff

University Marketing recently won two notable awards. Marketing won its first national American Advertising Award, and Pegasus Magazine won for its overall design and layout.

News and Information also won top honors at the Orlando chapter of Florida Public Relations Association annual awards. Competing against Central Florida industry and organizations, the team won the top overall award for a communications campaign to grow UCF’s research reputation.

D. Employee of the Month

The Employee of the Month for May was Elba Miscannon, an executive administrative assistant to the director of the Learning Support Center of Student Development and Enrollment Services. She has been with UCF for 17 years.

The Employee of the Month for June was Jerry Archambault, an accountant for Activity and Service Fees of Student Development and Enrollment Services. He has been with UCF for 15 years.

REPORTS

Marchena introduced Scott Cole, Vice President and General Counsel, who gave an informational report on the following item.
