Chair Michael J. Grindstaff called the meeting of the Board of Trustees to order at 1:00 p.m. in the Live Oak Center on the UCF Orlando campus.

WELCOME

Chair Michael J. Grindstaff welcomed the board members and asked for the roll to be called. A quorum was present.

Grindstaff called for approval of the November 17, 2011, board meeting minutes, which were approved with one minor, non-substantive correction.

Grindstaff reminded the board that the meeting was covered by the Florida Sunshine Law and that the public and press were invited to attend.

President John C. Hitt called upon John Bersia, Special Assistant to the President for Global Perspectives, who announced the establishment of an India Studies Center at UCF. The India Group created a $10 million endowed fund for the center to further its goal of increased cultural understanding and education.

REMARKS AND INTRODUCTIONS

Hitt recognized the following faculty members for their accomplishments.

Dr. Ni-bin Chang, a professor in the Civil, Environmental, and Construction Engineering Department and the director of UCF's Stormwater Management Academy, has been elected a fellow by the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Dr. Deborah C. Beidel, a professor in the Psychology Department and the director of the Clinical Ph.D. Program, was recently awarded more than $5 million dollars in grants from the U.S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command.

Hitt recognized Trustee Harris Rosen, charter member of the UCF Board of Trustees and chief benefactor of the Rosen College of Hospitality Management, who was named the Orlando Sentinel’s 2011 Central Floridian of the Year. Rick Walsh, charter member and former chair of the UCF Board of Trustees, was also a finalist for the award.
Hitt presented a certificate to Dr. James Drake, retired president of Brevard Community College, acknowledging his service to Central Florida education. Dr. Drake introduced his successor, Dr. James Richey, the newly named president of Brevard Community College.

Hitt introduced Malcolm Macleod, president of the Johnson Scholarship Foundation, his wife, Barbara Stanley, and the treasurer of the scholarship foundation, Dick Krause. Hitt announced that the Johnson Scholarship Foundation will contribute $1 million to transfer-student endowments.

Hitt announced that after a successful national search, UCF named Oregon State University Executive Associate Athletic Director Todd Stansbury as UCF Vice President and Director of Athletics.

Hitt announced that the American Football Coaches Association recognized the UCF football program for being one of just 17 programs graduating at least 90 percent of its members of the freshman student-athlete class of 2004, which was UCF's first year with head coach George O'Leary at the helm of the Knights' program.

Hitt congratulated the UCF cheerleaders who finished third at the 2012 College Cheerleading Championships under head coach, Linda Gooch. He also congratulated the women’s soccer team that made it to the Elite 8 this past November, led by Coach Amanda Cromwell.

Hitt recognized the following outstanding employees.

- The Employee of the Month for November was Barbara Woodford, an administrative assistant in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action Programs.
- The Employee of the Month for December was Barbara Offineer, an administrative assistant in the Biology Department.
- The Employee of the Month for January was Matthew Petrone, the purchasing manager for CREOL, the College of Optics and Photonics.

Hitt asked the audience to join him in congratulating all of these outstanding members of the UCF family.
