Chair Rick Walsh called the meeting of the Board of Trustees to order at 1:00 p.m. in the Live Oak Center on the UCF Orlando campus.

The following members attended the meeting: Trustees Albertson, Calvet, Cook, Gilley (via teleconference), Grindstaff, Kilbride, Klock, Mantilla, Rosen, and Yochum.

WELCOME

Chair Walsh welcomed the board members and called for approval of the November 10, 2010, board meeting minutes, which were approved as written.

Chair Walsh called on President John Hitt for remarks and introductions.

REMARKS

President Hitt announced that according to the Carnegie Foundation, UCF now ranks among the nation’s top research institutions. He reported that UCF was designated a “very high research” institution, which is the highest ranking given by Carnegie.

Hitt announced that UCF ended the 2010-11 football season ranked in the top 25 polls for the first time in school history. The Knights were ranked number 20 in the final USA Today coaches’ poll and number 21 in the final Associated Press poll. President Hitt recognized Keith Tribbel, Director of Athletics, and George O’Leary, head football coach.

Hitt announced that the Universal Cheerleaders Association and the Universal Dance Association named Linda Gooch, UCF’s spirit program’s head coach, as this year’s recipient of the Colonel Gene Moeller Award for her significant impact on the university’s spirit groups. Hitt also announced that the UCF cheerleaders earned third place in the Division IA cheer finals held earlier this month in Orlando.

Hitt reported that according to a Kiplinger’s report published earlier this month UCF offers one of the nation’s best values in education. The university now ranks 33rd, and it has advanced three spots from its 2010 position on the magazine’s annual 100-school list of best-value U.S. public colleges and universities.

Hitt announced that the Orlando Sentinel recently named its list of the 25 most powerful people in Central Florida. Members of UCF’s Board of Trustees and administration were well represented.

- 4th place-John C. Hitt
- 8th place-Dan Webster
- 21st place-Harris Rosen
- 24th place-Deborah German

Hitt recognized Trustee Harris Rosen, who was named the 2011 Cornell Entrepreneur of the Year. Rosen will be honored at the Cornell campus in April.
