The Honorable Judy Albertson       The Honorable Michael Kilbride
The Honorable James Atchison       The Honorable Phyllis Klock
The Honorable Olga Calvet          The Honorable Joseph Mantilla
The Honorable Ida Cook             The Honorable Harris Rosen
The Honorable Ray Gilley           The Honorable Daniel Webster
The Honorable Micky Grindstaff     The Honorable Thomas Yochum

WELCOME

Chair Walsh welcomed the board members and called for approval of the March 25, 2010, board meeting minutes, which were approved as written.

Chair Walsh asked Trustee Alan Florez to join him for special recognition. Walsh announced that Florez had served for almost four years as a member of the UCF Board of Trustees. He presented Florez with a commemorative plaque and thanked him for his contributions to the board.

Chair Walsh requested permission to alter the sequence of the agenda and called on Trustee Phyllis Klock to give the Nominating Committee report.

Trustee Klock, Chair of the Nominating Committee, announced that the committee had met on May 6 and unanimously passed the following agenda item for board approval.

- NOM-1 Trustee Emeritus Status for Patrick Christiansen and Conrad Santiago - A motion was made and passed by the board awarding the title of Trustee Emeritus to Patrick Christiansen and Conrad Santiago, Charter Trustees of the UCF Board of Trustees.

Trustees Christiansen and Santiago joined Chair Walsh and President John Hitt for commemorative plaque presentations and photos.

Chair Walsh then called on President Hitt for remarks and introductions.
REMARKS

President Hitt announced that UCF awarded its 200,000th degree at the Spring 2010 commencement ceremony to nursing major Andrea Long.

Hitt welcomed the following three new board members:

Jim Atchison, President and Chief Executive Officer of SeaWorld Parks and Entertainment
Joe Mantilla, Vice President of Corporate and Government Affairs for Zimek Technologies and a UCF alumnus
Mike Kilbride, President of the Student Government Association

Hitt stated that Ida Cook was elected to a second one-year term as chair of the Faculty Senate and retains her seat on the board. Hitt congratulated Trustee Cook.

Hitt announced that Chair Walsh was elected chair of the Board of Directors of Florida’s Blood Centers. He thanked Chair Walsh for his exemplary service to the Central Florida community.

Hitt reported that Chair Walsh named Trustee Olga Calvet and Dean Michael Frumkin of the College of Health and Public Affairs to the Board of Directors of Florida’s Blood Centers. Hitt thanked both of these UCF community members for their public service.

Hitt announced that four candidates for provost were interviewed on campus.

Dr. James Coleman, Vice President for Research and Professor of Ecology and Evolutionary Biology, Rice University
Dr. Richard DeMillo, Distinguished Professor of Computing and Management, Georgia Institute of Technology
Dr. Raymond Alden, Executive Vice President and Provost, Northern Illinois University
Dr. Tony Waldrop, Vice Chancellor for Research and Economic Development, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Dr. Tony Waldrop returned to campus for a second onsite interview on May 17-19.

Hitt noted that President Charles N. Millican was honored with the John Young History Maker award at the 2010 John Young History Maker Celebration on April 22.

Hitt reported that the inaugural UCF Book Festival was held on April 17 and featured over 60 authors, including noted novelist Carl Hiaasen and former United States Poet Laureate Billy Collins. Over 1,000 people attended the one-day event.
Hitt announced that the UCF men’s golf team won the Conference USA championship. The team members were not able to attend the meeting because they were in California for the NCAA finals. He wished them well.

Hitt reported that UCF has been actively engaged in the Sunshine Census to count Florida’s college and university students. He thanked Chantel Carter, Assistant Director of the Office of Student Involvement and a member of the Orange County Census Taskforce, for leading this effort.

INTRODUCTIONS

Hitt announced that three faculty members were honored with the Pegasus Professor distinction, UCF’s most prestigious faculty award that recognizes extraordinary contributions to the UCF community through teaching, research, and service.

Dr. Michael Georgiopoulos, a professor in the School of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science, has taught at UCF since 1986. He is the principal investigator on a $1.8 million National Science Foundation grant that funds UCF’s EXCEL program. Georgiopoulos has been awarded 48 grants totaling more than $8.5 million.

Dr. Jennifer Platt, Executive Associate Dean for Academic Affairs in the College of Education, began her career at UCF 25 years ago as an assistant professor and coordinator of exceptional education at the Cocoa campus. Platt has generated more than $1.7 million in research funding for projects focused on recruitment, development, and retention in teacher education.

Dr. Shin-Tson Wu has been a professor in the College of Optics and Photonics since 2001. His contributions to UCF and to the science of LCD technology have been many, and he and his team have earned 66 patents. Wu’s accomplishments are a major reason for UCF being ranked third in the nation on the IEEE Spectrum Patents Scorecard.

Hitt announced that three College of Business Administration graduate students placed first in the Graduate Specialized Category of the 2010 Project of the Year National Competition sponsored by the Small Business Institute. MBA students Tammra Baron, Rayan Kaissi, and Lindsay Tompkins were named first-place winners for their team’s business consulting project.

Hitt congratulated sophomore guard Isaac Sosa who was one of five league players voted on to the 2009-10 Conference USA Men’s Basketball All-Academic Team. He is the first UCF student-athlete to earn a spot on the all-academic team since it was created in 2007.

Hitt also congratulated men’s basketball forward Keith Clanton and guard Marcus Jordan who were selected to the Conference USA All-Freshman team.

Hitt recognized Coach Caryl Smith Gilbert and members of the UCF women’s track team who won the first Conference USA outdoor championship in school history.
And, finally, Hitt announced that the Employee of the Month for March was Angela Young, an administrative assistant in the Office of Student Conduct.

Hitt asked the audience to join him in congratulating these outstanding members of the UCF family.

Hitt announced that this board meeting was Provost Terry Hickey’s last. Hitt expressed his gratitude for the excellent work he had done at UCF and announced a farewell reception in Hickey’s honor on June 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the FAIRWINDS Alumni Center.

REPORT

Chair Walsh called upon Dan Holsenbeck, Vice President for University Relations, who introduced the following student legislative scholars: Christina Aiuto, Michael Lueptow, Matthew Neff, Joey Posey, Audra Robataille, Melissa Theodore, and Regina Weiler. Holsenbeck credited Fred Kittinger, Associate Vice President and Director of State and Local Government Affairs, and Alison Schultz, Administrative Assistant for University Relations, for their work with the legislative scholars. He followed the introductions with a legislative update.

Holsenbeck reported on the State University System summary of allocations by appropriation for Fiscal Years 2009-10 and 2010-11. UCF’s total appropriation for Fiscal Year 2010-11 is $438,225,428.

Holsenbeck reported that the State University System’s 2010-11 PECO Project List included all seven of UCF’s priority projects in the order in which they were presented to the Board of Governors.

And, finally, Holsenbeck reviewed the highlights of the Higher Education Conforming Bill and noted that the bill will authorize universities to increase the sum of the activity and service, health, and athletic fees up to 15% in Fiscal Year 2010-11. The conforming bill will also make substantial changes in Bright Futures Scholarships.

Chair Walsh thanked Dan Holsenbeck and Fred Kittinger for their work with the legislature in support of UCF.
