NEW BUSINESS

Communications and Marketing

Grant Heston, Vice President for Communications and Marketing, shared an update on several high profile news items associated with UCF.

Heston also showed a video of Bill Gates talking about UCF's innovative techniques related to digital learning and his thoughts on the many ways UCF continues to engage students through a digital learning platform.

To conclude his report, Heston introduced members of the WUCF team who gave a presentation about "Meet the Helpers," a new initiative by WUCF to introduce children to community "helpers" that arise in emergency situations.

In June, WUCF will unveil a toolkit that will be shared with public media stations across the country, complete with a video series suitable for on-air, online and social media.

Alumni, Development, and Foundation

Mike Morsberger, Vice President for Advancement and CEO of the UCF Foundation, provided an IGNITE Campaign, highlighting principal-level gift commitments that will put the campaign close to the $400M mark by the end of the fiscal year and move the needle closer to reaching the $500M goal by June 30, 2019.

Mike concluded his report by recommending two namings in recognition of the contributions made by James L. Rosengren '81 and Antonia (Julia) Lima Rosengren.

- Naming of the Rosengren Trauma Clinic at UCF RESTORES (ADVC-1)
- Naming of the Jim and Julia Rosengren Locker Room at Spectrum Stadium (ADVC-2)

The Advancement Committee unanimously approved these items.

University and Government Relations

Dan Holsenbeck, Senior Vice President for University Relations, thanked the Trustees for their support of the John C. Hitt Partnership Complex dedication and updated the committee on federal legislation that will benefit UCF RESTORES and the BRIDG Center in Osceola County.

Holsenbeck also reminded the committee that the Board of Governors will officially recognize Dr. Hitt during the June meeting at UCF.

Chair Conte adjourned the meeting at 9:35 a.m.
