1. Advancing Transportation and Infrastructure Across America
   Electric vehicles are attractive for their cheaper fuel costs and lower maintenance requirements, but challenges like finding charging stations during long trips, greater upfront costs, and limited models has hindered widespread adoption. UCF aims to change that as part of a new coalition of more than 60 public and private organizations charging forward to address the electric transportation market and infrastructure challenges in the Southeast region of the U.S.

2. Aiding U.S. in Race to Laser Science Prominence
   UCF is joining the 11-member, invitation-only LaserNetUS, a consortium of the nation's best large laser facilities started by the Department of Energy. The institutions will work together to establish the United States as the leader in the world's race to advance intense laser science. UCF was sought out for its expertise in ultrafast long wavelength lasers with high energy and high average power.

3. Nationally Certified for Helping Latino Students Excel
   UCF was recently recognized by two organizations as a national leader for its efforts in accelerating Latino student success. UCF became the second university in Florida and one of 24 institutions certified with the Seal of Excelencia designation since its inception in 2019. The news was announced two days after UCF was named a Fulbright Hispanic Serving Institution Leader by the U.S. State Department’s Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. As of Fall 2021, 19,665 Hispanic students are enrolled at UCF, making up 27.8% of the student population.

4. Florida's First-of-its-Kind FinTech Degree
   Financial technology is widely regarded as one of the world’s fastest growing business areas, so to help provide highly trained professionals to the industry, UCF recently launched a new master’s degree in FinTech — the only program of its kind in Florida. Upon completion of the program, graduates will be well positioned for a wide range of jobs, including apps developer, blockchain developer, cybersecurity analyst, compliance expert, data specialist, financial analyst, investment manager and more.

5. Orlando: Powered by Knights
   More than 25% of this year’s “Orlando’s 50 Most Powerful People” honorees are Knights. Board of Trustees Chair Alex Martins ’01MBA, UCF President Alexander N. Cartwright and 12 other faculty, alumni and supporters were named to Orlando Magazine’s list, which highlights prominent leaders in education, tourism, government, entertainment, sports, arts and business.

NEW BUSINESS

BOT-1 UCF Athletics Conference Membership

Martins recognized President Alexander Cartwright to address the Board.

Cartwright shared that earlier in the day, UCF received an invitation to join the Big 12 Conference no later than July 1, 2024. He said this invitation will not only enhance the university’s national recognition in athletic competitions but also strengthen the university’s goal to become the world’s leading metropolitan research university. He said preliminary financial terms were outlined in meeting materials. Cartwright concluded his remarks with thanks to past and present university constituents, Big 12 Commissioner Bob Bowlsby and American Athletic Conference Commissioner Michael Aresco.

Martins commented that it is the Board’s role to make important decisions for the betterment of the university and these decisions are centered on benefiting students. He said today’s decision has the strong potential to be one such transformative decision noting that intercollegiate athletics provides a launching point for international notoriety that has a multiplying effect on a university’s success.
Martins said he would entertain a motion to accept the invitation to join The Big 12 Conference and to delegate to President Alexander Cartwright the authority to negotiate and agree to terms of admission to the Big 12 as well as terms of exit from the American Athletic Conference, in consultation with the Chair of the Board of Trustees.

McAlpin moved to approve BOT-1 with Mills providing the second.

The trustees had the following comments:

- Okaty shared his thanks for the contributions of previous and current university staff, leadership and members of the Board of Trustees who laid the foundation for today’s vote.
- Gaekwad requested clarification that his questions regarding resources to support the realignment were addressed. Martins said he consulted with Cartwright on conference transition and will continue to do so as negotiations with the Big 12 Conference and the American Athletic Conference move ahead.

The motion passed unanimously.

BOT-2 Amended Line of Credit between the UCF Foundation and UCF Athletics Association

Martins recognized Gerald Hector, Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance, to address the Board.

Hector said in December 2020 the Board voted to institute a $4M internal line of credit between the UCF Foundation and the UCF Athletics Association. Hector said today’s request is to increase that line to $10M to support upcoming transactions related to conference transition. He said no other material terms in the agreement, including an annual interest rate of 3 percent, have changed.

Martins said he would entertain a motion to approve the first amendment to the memorandum of understanding between the UCF Foundation and UCF Athletics Association.

Mills moved to approve BOT-2 with Okaty providing the second.

The motion passed unanimously.

ADJOURNMENT

Mills acknowledged UCF’s diverse student population, commenting on the work that needs to be done to reflect that same diversity in UCF’s faculty, staff, administration and the Board, which he believes is necessary for the Board to deliver a better product to students. Martins concurred and referenced the discussion during the Audit and Compliance Committee, noting that the Equity Report only covers certain categories, and the university needs to find and ensure ways to track that it does reflect the university’s student body and there is a diverse approach to operations. Christy said the Committee had a discussion on graduation rates and tasked staff with determining why there were reductions in certain areas.

AUD-2 Five-Year External Program Review of UCF’s Compliance Program

Christy moved to approve AUD-2 with Conte providing the second.

Harrington asked to move the report back to Committee since faculty were not interviewed:
  • Rhonda Bishop, Vice President for Compliance and Risk, clarified the external

DISCUSSION

DISC -1  Inclusive Excellence and Civil Discourse at UCF

Martins said that in addition to the BOG’s initiative on Civil Discourse that was previously mentioned, a role of the Board is to understand the university’s policies on freedom of speech, and the measures in place at the university to encourage freedom of expression. He recognized Cartwright to introduce this topic.

Cartwright’s introduction highlighted:
- The university’s diversity of background and experience; thought and religion; beliefs and ideals brought together make the university community better.
- The importance of the university’s campuses to be places where any topic can be discussed, the learning that occurs from these discussions and the ability to disagree respectfully.
- A campus culture focused on inclusive excellence, with compassion at its core, will build an environment that will enable the university’s goal to become the world’s leading metropolitan research university.
- The BOG’s directive of tasking the BOG Strategic Planning Committee with the Civil Discourse initiative.

Cartwright welcomed presenters Michael Johnson, Interim Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs; Youndy Cook, Interim Vice President and General Counsel; Adrienne Frame, Interim Vice President for Student Development and Enrollment Services; and Andrea Guzmán, Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, to address the Board and be available for questions.

Their presentation highlighted:
- Legal Overview
  - U.S. and Florida Constitutional guarantees; key provisions of the Campus Free Expression Act; House Bill 233; and the university’s current policies and practices regarding freedom of expression.
- Academic Freedom
  - Focused on the relationship of academic freedom and freedom of speech.
- Student Awareness and Education
  - How the university educates students about free speech and encourages free speech.

The trustees had the following comments:
- Mills asked if the university was following the Supreme Court precedent on First Amendment limitations, and Cook confirmed that the university was. Mills asked for data around incidents where the university shielded free speech or free expression from students. Cook clarified that to her knowledge no such data exists since the university supports free speech across campus, including before the adoption of the Campus Free Expression Act. Mills clarified with Cook that bullying (harmful behavior) is included in the university’s Student Conduct Regulations, which was confirmed.

- Harrington recognized the university’s role in teaching the legal and social limitations of speech, including external limits on student behavior, noting that a university is a unique environment as opposed to the rest of society.
- Cartwright reinforced the university’s commitment for all to feel welcome and supported.
- Martins asked Seay, as Chair of the Academic Excellence and Student Success Committee, to keep regular dialogue with the Provost and Dr. Frame on this topic and bring updates or concerns to the Board through the Academic Excellence and Student Success Committee, as necessary.
- Harrington said the Faculty Senate recently appointed a committee to sponsor a series of university debates, with the intent to debate difficult issues, but also demonstrate and model that there can be disagreement while still remaining good friends.

WORKING LUNCH

DISC -2 University Decision-Making and Shared Governance

Martins recognized Provost Johnson to address the Board.

The presentation highlighted:

- Benefits of Shared Governance
- Roles in Shared Governance
- Examples of how Shared Governance works at UCF:
  - Course Content and Curriculum
  - Academic Policies
  - New Degree Programs
  - Colleges and Department Budgets
  - Hiring Faculty
  - Evaluating Faculty
  - Strategic Planning

The trustees had the following comments:

- Martins inquired about means other than advisory boards for gaining industry input in developing content and curriculum. Johnson said the most effective paths are advisory boards and informal conversations.
- Mills asked what percentage of the university’s faculty serve as paid consultants. Johnson said he is not sure this is captured well since there is a strong disciplinary difference between colleges, noting industry input can be obtained through engineering and science research contracts and grants while business faculty tend to gain that input through consulting.
- Martins asked where the student falls in the context of course content and curriculum, and how the university creates internship opportunities that prepare students for the workforce. Johnson said this is discipline dependent – professional disciplines do it well, but there is an opportunity to strengthen industry ties in non-professional disciplines.

- Cartwright followed up on Chair Martins’ question, acknowledging that students are at the center of the course content and curriculum model. He further acknowledged that students become alumni working in industry, and they can have a big impact on the university’s programs. To become a model that includes a circle of input between faculty, industry, leadership, and with students at the center, the university must think differently about how it can leverage input from each group.

- Harrington said this is also an opportunity for advancement, noting interested corporations can sponsor a course, fund a teaching lab or endow a professorship.

- Seay said marketing is needed to educate industries on the university’s ‘Handshake’ system for hiring students.

- Christy noted a joint program of hospitality management and the arts is a highly sought-after joint degree that hospitality industries would support since it could help with their 50 percent first-year attrition rate. He stressed that the university needs to move on these opportunities — aggressively.

- Cartwright said that he and the Provost have been discussing industry clusters and how to bring in that expertise as a consortium in different areas.

- Mills cautioned that accountability and responsibility for the development of strategic partnerships must be assigned. Cartwright said the role of Senior Vice President for External Affairs and Advancement was expanded to include this responsibility. Mills suggested that each university department head should consider monitoring strategic partnerships as part of their objectives.

- Conte said the university should maintain and leverage current relationships and strategic partnerships and these can be studied as the university considers new partnerships.

- Okaty asked for a focus on a streamlined and easy process for community partners to find opportunities for mentorship, to find graduates to hire or to offer internships.

- Altizer said the College of Business has unique programs like The EXCHANGE for industry participation, but these programs need to be better marketed.

- Mills said the university should not forget that it can actively drive performance and improve its performance-based funding metrics, in turn increasing revenue. Johnson clarified that the state is not putting any new money in performance funding, and the university must perform well to not lose performance-based funding dollars.

- Hall commented that Student Government is advocating to publicize Student Perception of Instruction reports, recognizing that the rating scale is not always extremely accurate. She went on to say that making course design information available would be helpful so that all different types of learners can make the best choice when enrolling. She suggested offering a more reliable alternative to “Rate My Professor” that is focused on course design as opposed to personal opinion would be beneficial to students when enrolling in classes.
Martins made several announcements regarding upcoming meetings.

NEW BUSINESS

There was no new business to come before the Board.

Trustees Joseph Conte, Caryl McAlpin and John Miklos joined via teleconference.

Trustees Jeff Condello, Danny Gaekwad and Beverly Seay were not in attendance.

PUBLIC COMMENT

There were no requests for public comment.

NEW BUSINESS

Martins called on Youndy Cook, Interim Vice President and General Counsel, to read any disclosures of conflict of interest from the trustees. There were no disclosures.

BOT-1 Article 2: Definitions, Article 7: Wages, Article 13: Change in Assignment, and Article 23: Grievance Procedure of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Between the University of Central Florida Board of Trustees and the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME)

Martins said that in the August Board of Trustees meeting, he appointed a subcommittee of the Executive Committee responsible for advising and making recommendations to the Board and president regarding collective bargaining activities. He reminded the Board of the subcommittee members: Trustee Okaty, who acts as Chair, and Trustees Christy and McAlpin.

He recognized Okaty to address the Board.

Okaty said the university has three employee unions – the United Faculty of Florida (UFF); American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME); and the Police Benevolent Association (PBA). He said Maureen Binder, Associate Vice President for Human Resources and Chief HR Officer, serves as the chief negotiator for both AFSCME and PBA, the unions with collective bargaining agreements being considered today. Okaty said the Collective Bargaining Subcommittee members had been individually briefed on both contracts.

He recognized Binder to address the Board.
Binder outlined the AFSCME and PBA collective bargaining processes.

Okaty welcomed subcommittee members Christy and McAlpin for comments. Both acknowledged that they were briefed and were comfortable with the collective bargaining processes.

Binder highlighted the negotiated articles of the AFSCME agreement.

Okaty moved to approve BOT – 1 with McAlpin providing the second.

President Alexander Cartwright acknowledged the hard work of the university’s employees, particularly over the past 18 months. He said many of the staff represented through this employment agreement have worked on campus throughout the university’s response to COVID-19. He said this agreement has his full support. Martins concurred with Cartwright’s comments.

The trustees had the following comments:

- Conte encouraged a flexible approach to Article 13, in which the notice period was increased for reassignments. Binder commented that reassigned employees are also given a one-time $500 payment for gas, tolls, and similar expenses. Conte asked when salaries will be renegotiated. Binder confirmed salaries are negotiated annually.
- Harrington said it will be important for the university to track national employment trends.

The motion passed unanimously.

BOT-2 Collective Bargaining Agreement Between the University of Central Florida Board of Trustees and the Central Florida Police Benevolent Association

Martins recognized Okaty, who said the subcommittee was briefed on this agreement. He asked Binder to outline significant changes to the PBA agreement, which she did.

Okaty clarified that department supervisors who serve on the university’s negotiating committees are not covered under collective bargaining agreements, as management is not included in bargaining units. He said department leadership represents the university in collective bargaining with a special understanding of respective departmental concerns.

Okaty moved to approve BOT – 2 with Harrington providing the second.

Cartwright said the university’s police officers are dedicated to keeping the campus safe while caring for and supporting our students, faculty and staff. He said he values their contributions to our community, the care they put into their work and the incredible services they provide 24/7, whether the campus is open or closed. He said this agreement has his full support. Martins concurred with his comments.

The trustees had the following comments:

- Conte requested clarification on the compensatory time off that is provided for mental health assessments and physicals in Article 11, which is six hours for each, annually. He asked if other university staff represented by a union were given a uniform compensation. Binder said the university gives the Facilities staff work uniforms but no outright compensation.
Mills asked how the Sunshine Law applies to collective bargaining. Cook clarified the application of the Sunshine Law to the collective bargaining process and explained that the Board votes on ratification at the conclusion of negotiations.

The motion passed unanimously.

GOV-1 FY21 Presidential Assessment and Compensation Review

Meeting Date for Upcoming Action: ____________________________

Purpose and Issues to be Considered:
Consider the Presidential Assessment and Compensation Review Executive Summary and outlined compensation recommendations (Attachment A).

Background Information:
Board of Governors Regulation 1.001 requires the Board to conduct an annual evaluation of the president. The Governance Committee is responsible for the annual evaluation of the president’s performance in addition to reviewing the President’s compensation and reviewing and approving the President’s short- and long-term goals.

In June 2021, the Board approved a plan for evaluating the president’s performance. The plan included an incentive plan to be utilized in determining the president’s award of an annual incentive as provided by the president’s employment agreement which provides for an annual incentive award of not more than 50 percent of the president’s base salary (or up to $300,000).

Following approval of the plan, the Chief Human Resources Officer conducted individual interviews with all trustees to discuss their assessment of the president based on the approved presidential assessment criteria. The assessment includes two parts: assessment of the president’s leadership competencies and assessment of the president’s progress and accomplishments related to the incentive plan goals.

Additionally, the Chair of the Board of Trustees requested input from the Chair of the Board of Governors (BOG), for input into the evaluation.

Based on all feedback received, the Chief Human Resources Officer compiled a Presidential Assessment and Compensation Review Executive Summary (Attachment A) in consultation with the Chair of the Board of Trustees. The report also includes compensation recommendations made by the Immediate Past Chair of the Board of Trustees.

Recommended Action:
Approve the Presidential Assessment and Compensation Review Executive Summary and outlined compensation recommendations in Attachment A.

Alternatives to Decision:
Decline approval of the Presidential Assessment and Compensation Review Executive Summary and compensation recommendations as presented.
Propose alternative compensation recommendations.
Fiscal Impact and Source of Funding:
If approved, non-state resources would be used to fund the incentive compensation payment.

The Board of Trustees’ Governance Committee is responsible for conducting this annual assessment. Each trustee was interviewed by Maureen Binder, Chief Human Resources Officer, using an assessment questionnaire that was distributed to each trustee in advance. The twelve leadership competencies assessed were: personal characteristics; strong academic leader/faculty focus; student focus; proven record of diversity and inclusion; partnerships and external relations; administrative leadership, judgement, and decision making; fund raising and diversification of resources; athletic knowledge, knowledge of metropolitan universities; relationship with governance; financial acumen; and overall performance. The assessment levels were defined as: Exceeds Expectations, Meets Expectations, and Does Not Meet Expectations. Additionally, the trustees rated the president on his five Fiscal 2021 Goals that were approved by the Board of Trustees on June 17, 2021. The rating criteria were: Superior, Very Good, Satisfactory, Less than Satisfactory and Unsatisfactory.

The trustees’ assessment of the president’s leadership competencies and overall performance evaluation rating was “Exceeds Expectations.” President Cartwright was rated highest in the categories of strong academic leader, personal characteristics, athletics knowledge, and knowledge of a metropolitan university. In addition, the president’s performance was commended by the Board of Governors’ Chair, Syd Kitson.

The trustees believe the president has done an exceptional job in providing leadership to the university over the last year, especially considering the COVID-19 pandemic. Trustees noted the president’s care and concern for UCF students, faculty, and staff. Several trustees commented in multiple categories that Dr. Cartwright was resilient and handled challenges very well. One particularly notable comment was that Dr. Cartwright would be farther along in some areas if it weren’t for COVID, however his performance has been impressive. His integrity and transparency were praised as was his strong respect for the faculty and his own strong academic background. It was noted that because of his own background as a first-generation college student, the president could relate better to students. The trustees were almost unanimous in praising Dr. Cartwright’s vision for focusing on making UCF the world’s leading metropolitan research university. The trustees also praised the president’s knowledge of athletics, mentioning his hiring of a new athletic director and football coach, along with UCF moving to the Big 12. It was noted that the Big 12 would help elevate UCF’s national reputation and assist in building additional partnerships.

Several trustees commented that they were impressed with how President Cartwright has needed to make some very difficult decisions and tough calls. However, it was also noted in a few areas that he was still setting the foundation and had not had enough time to “move the needle.” These areas of developing leadership included the areas of diversity, equity, and inclusion; partnerships and external relations; and fundraising and diversification of resources. Several trustees mentioned the McKenzie Scott gift, noting that President Cartwright would be responsible to grow it. It was mentioned that many external relationship opportunities had been handicapped by COVID but that this area was now moving in a better direction.
Several trustees commented that UCF was lucky to have President Cartwright and went on to say that he is setting a foundation to move UCF to a national stage in academics as a world class institution.

In summary, responding to this annual assessment review of leadership competencies, the committee recommends that President Cartwright’s annual assessment be rated as “Exceeds Expectations.”

In addition, the overall assessment of President Cartwright’s performance toward his five Fiscal Year 2021 goals was rated as “Very Good.” It was noted that the president still has leadership positions on his team to fill, however, the quality of the hires he has made so far has been excellent. One trustee commented that UCF was a large, complex place and the president “had a lot to get his hands around,” including ensuring that the financial health of the institution was strong while providing financial accountability and transparency.

One trustee comment summed the overall assessment well, noting that it is a thrill to have Dr. Cartwright in the leadership helm at UCF with the foundation he is setting. President Cartwright is effectively positioning UCF to achieve world class performance in the education it provides to its student community.

In addition to the assessment of the President’s Leadership Competencies and performance toward his fiscal goals, an annual evaluation of the president’s base and incentive compensation was conducted in accordance with the Board of Trustees’ Presidential Performance and Compensation Review Policy. The current board chair and the immediately preceding board chair considered an analysis of presidential compensation data for national, high-research universities comparable to UCF as well as total presidential compensation data for the Florida State University System (SUS) presidents. Based on this review, it is not recommended to adjust the president’s base salary at this time.

Considering President Cartwright’s annual assessment leadership competency rating of “Exceeds Expectations” and his Fiscal Year Goal achievement rating of “Very Good,” the previous board chair has recommended a performance incentive award of $197,500 based on the incentive structure approved by the Board of Trustees. The recommendation for the incentive award is made with consideration to the maximum award amount provided by the president’s employment agreement, which is capped at half of the president’s base salary.

SPA-1: The Stephen W. Hawking Center for Microgravity and Education

☐ Information  ☐ Discussion  ☒ Action

Meeting Date for Upcoming Action: ____________

Purpose and Issues to be Considered:
Approval is sought to rename UCF’s Center for Microgravity Research to “The Stephen W. Hawking Center for Microgravity Research and Education,” which may also be referred to as “The Hawking Center.”

Note: No building or facility is being named. Activities of the Center for Microgravity Research take place primarily within labs in the UCF Physical Sciences Building and Florida Space Institute (FSI) facilities in Research Park.

Background Information:
On January 24, 2019, Vice President for Research Elizabeth Klonoff brought an information item to the Board of Trustees, via the Nominating and Governance Committee. The briefing described that renowned physicist and professor Stephen William Hawking provided UCF and Space Florida certified irrevocable consent to use his name in relation to a center for microgravity research and education. The Hawking consent letter further referred to creation of a non-profit entity, to be jointly operated by UCF and Space Florida.

UCF, in collaboration with Space Florida, has negotiated an agreement with the Estate of Professor Hawking, at least partially in view of certain registered U.S. trademarks owned by the Estate, with a result that simplified the matter to eliminate the requirement to form a separate non-profit entity. UCF and Space Florida have a pending collaboration agreement that defines the responsibilities of each and confirms UCF the controlling party for operations and education of the center.

Naming the center after Dr. Hawking would be a strategic move for UCF in reaching its goal of becoming the world’s leading public metropolitan research university. Faculty, researchers, and students at UCF and FSI have done an excellent job of building the university’s reputation with peer institutions, NASA and commercial space companies. But associating Hawking’s famous name, which is well-respected by the world’s scientific community, is well-recognized across society, and has been adopted into pop culture, provides an opportunity to elevate UCF’s reputation to another level.

The only known university granted permission to use Dr. Hawking’s name for a research center to date is the University of Cambridge in the UK. The Estate is excited about continuing Dr. Hawking’s research legacy and educating the next generation of scientists, which aligns with UCF’s mission of research and education.
Given the exclusively limited use of the Hawking name, we expect the association will impart third-party affirmation of UCF’s excellence in innovative space-related research. Approval of renaming the existing microgravity center is also expected to open the doors to new opportunities, both monetary and collaborative in nature, and raise UCF’s visibility at that state, national and international level.

Recommended Action:
Approve the renaming of UCF’s Center for Microgravity Research as “The Stephen W. Hawking Center for Microgravity Research and Education”.

Alternatives to Decision:
Decline to recommend approval.
Table item of business for future consideration.
Request revisions for future consideration.

Fiscal Impact and Source of Funding:
UCF’s Center for Microgravity Research will continue to operate along its present fiscal model. Acting upon Dr. Hawking’s certified consent does not obligate UCF to any fees, however, approximately $20,000 will be paid to the Estate for legal fees related to the contract negotiation, using research overhead.

13.3 that The Center will be successful in its mission.
14 You shall indemnify us against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and direct losses (including but not limited to any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other reasonable professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by us arising out of or in connection with any breach by You of the terms of this letter agreement and any use you make of the Rights; however, the amount and total of Your liability for such indemnification shall be capped, regardless of the number or nature of claims in tort, equity, or contract, at the dollar amount set by the Florida legislature in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes. UCF and SF expressly retain all rights, benefits and immunities of sovereign immunity, with nothing in this letter agreement deemed a waiver of immunity. Nothing in this letter agreement shall inure to the benefit of any third party for the purpose of allowing any claim against UCF and/or SF that would otherwise be barred under the doctrine of sovereign immunity or operation of law.

15 You shall not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any of your rights and obligations under this letter agreement.

16 You shall make a contribution of £15,000 of the costs reasonably incurred by the Estate in relation to the execution of this letter agreement and their fulfilment of their obligations arising from this letter agreement.

17 If the approvals of the UCF Board of Trustees and the SF Board of Directors referenced in Paragraph 3 are required but are not received, the Estate has the right to terminate this letter agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to You. If within 18 months of the date of execution of this letter agreement UCF and SF jointly make the business decision not to move forward with the formation of The Center then (i) the Estate or (ii) jointly UCF and SF have the right to terminate this letter agreement with immediate effect by giving written notice to the other parties.

18 If there is a conflict between any of the provisions of this letter agreement and the provisions of the February 18, 2011 grant, the provisions of this letter agreement shall prevail.

19 We may revoke the permissions set out in this letter agreement at any time with immediate effect by written notice to you if you contravene any requirement of this letter agreement. Revocation will apply to all future use of the Rights but will not require You to delete or remove the Rights from any existing tangible materials, as long as the placement and representation of the Rights comply with the terms of this letter.

20 No variation of this letter agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties (or their authorised representatives).

Please be so kind as to sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter thereby creating binding agreement between us.

Purpose and Issues to be Considered:
The College of Engineering and Computer Science (CECS) and Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering (MAE) seek approval of a new Ph.D. program in Biomedical Engineering (BME). The proposed Ph.D. degree program will build upon the reputation the department has established in this field.

Background Information:
The Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering (MAE) Department has worked to meet a strategic goal of the CECS by establishing Biomedical Engineering programs aimed at significantly enhancing its growth, reputation and ranking, to meet strong demand from motivated students, that typically includes a significant proportion of women, minority and students with disabilities, and to promote productive research collaborations with the UCF College of Medicine (UCF-COM) at the Lake Nona campus and, more generally, with biomedical researchers throughout UCF and Central Florida. The CECS has established a successful Bioengineering Minor that complements BS degrees in Engineering and Computer Science. The CECS has collaborated with the Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences at UCF to establish a companion Bioengineering Minor that was launched in 2019 and the Medicine-Engineering Double Degree (MEDD) program established in 2016 for pre-med students. Finally, MAE launched the Master of Science in BME in Fall 2016. The MAE department has made a substantial number of strategic hires, four of which were made through the Bionix and DAT UCF faculty cluster initiatives. The department has an extensive history of BME research funding that supported the production of BME theses and BME-related dissertations. The next strategic step is to formalize this latter effort by adding the Ph.D. in Biomedical Engineering.

Recommended Action:
Approve the proposed Ph.D. program in Biomedical Engineering

Alternatives to Decision:
Do not approve

Fiscal Impact and Source of Funding:
Fiscal impact is minimal for a STEM graduate program as the expertise and courses are building on faculty already in place based as a result of the master’s degree in Biomedical Engineering. The courses for this degree program are already offered for students in the current mechanical engineering programs as part of their research focus or elective interest. The enrollment potential for this program is demonstrated in the cover page table and the funds are internal to the MAE department.

| 1. The goals of the program are aligned with the university’s mission and relate to specific institutional strengths. | Met with Strength
The proposed PhD in BME program aligns with the UCF strategic mission to be a leading research university and with the SUS BOG Strategic Planning Goals, which specifically identify biomedical engineering as a key enabling industry that: (1) provides jobs with high average annual salaries, and (2) fits within the overarching strategy of building a stable Florida economy based on knowledge and innovation. The terminal degree program will produce highly trained graduates to meet the demands of the growing biomedical industry in Florida and nationwide.
The program is interdisciplinary building upon existing collaborations among the UCF College of Engineering and Computer Science and the UCF College of Medicine and Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences and local industry partners such as Orlando Health, Advent Health, and Nemours. Moreover, the program leverages the substantial institutional investment in the Bionix (prosthetic interfaces) and Disability, Aging and Technology (DAT) faculty cluster initiatives. |
| 2. If there have been program reviews or accreditation activities in the discipline or related disciplines pertinent to the proposed program, the proposal provides evidence that progress has been made in implementing the recommendations from those reviews. | Met with Strength
The BME MS program in MAE Department completed an Academic Program Review in 2018-19 with external consultants. The recommendations were (1) continue to target a high-quality diverse pool for graduate student recruitment, (2) enrich curriculum content in biomedical engineering and assure course offering availability, (3) improve student career preparation, and (4) increase student financial support.
The MAE Department has made substantial progress in implementing recommendations by hiring diverse faculty and recruiting a diverse graduate student population, enriching its curriculum by offering a substantial number of BME courses, and providing additional assistantships as a consequence of the growth of the BME faculty research portfolio (for example NIH RO1 and two NSF CAREER awards). |

The 72-hr curriculum consists of a core set of seven required courses (21 hours) that have been approved by the BME faculty and an additional 12 elective courses (36 hours). The additional 12 elective courses could include independent study and directed research but must include a minimum of six hours of formal coursework chosen from a selection of graduate elective courses. The courses are being offered regularly so that they will be readily available to the doctoral students. Students will have the ability to develop specializations within the broad curriculum.

Courses such as biomaterials, biomechanics, and bioelectricity are often components of Biomedical Engineering graduate curricula. The proposed courses are primarily focused on biomechanics. The curriculum could be made more interdisciplinary and strengthened by including additional electives related to biomedical sciences from computer science, electrical engineering, materials science from CECS and others related to biomedical sciences such as physiology, anatomy, and biochemistry from the Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences and nanomedicine from the College of Medicine.

Admission consideration will be given to applicants with undergraduate degrees in: Biomedical Engineering, Aerospace Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Materials Science and Engineering or closely related disciplines such as Electrical Engineering.

Graduate engineering programs in MAE do not require professional accreditation, but MAE undergraduate programs have been accredited until 2027 by the Engineering Accreditation Commission (EAC) of the Accreditation Board for Engineering & Technology (ABET). The MAE Department has an industrial advisory committee that reviews the curriculum and informs the department and department chair annually regarding industry needs and trends.

<td>4. Evidence is provided that a critical mass of faculty members is available to initiate the program based on estimated enrollments, and that, if appropriate, there is a commitment to hire additional faculty members in later years, based on estimated enrollments. <td>Met with Strength</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

UCF and the MAE Department have invested substantial resources in preparation for the PhD in BME program through recruiting a strong core of faculty (12) who will teach the required courses and provide exciting research opportunities for the doctoral students.

The BME-focused MAE faculty have earned their doctorate degrees in BME and/or have received formal postdoctoral training in BME. The number of BME faculty in MAE is comparable to that of most BME departments. These faculty members can support the projected growth of the PhD program from 11 students estimated to enroll in year one to the 27 students estimated in year five. This is an average of 2.45 PhD students/faculty member which is achievable without hiring additional faculty. Furthermore, the number of UCF BME-engaged faculty is considerably larger, and the UCF BME expertise is broader when you consider the collaborating faculty from the Bionix and DAT clusters and other research groups (e.g., computer vision, nanoscience, materials engineering, biomedical sciences) outside of MAE.

The BME faculty have been successful in securing research grant support from NSF, NIH, American Heart Association, local industry, and private foundations. Notably two faculty members (a female and an African American) were recently awarded NSF CAREER Awards. In addition to the CAREER, Dr. Huang also has an active NIH RO1.

The foundation for the BME PhD degree program has been strategically constructed. The successful undergraduate minor in bioengineering in CECS began in 2011 (and joined with the BSBS in 2019), and the MS in BME began in 2016. Historically, several doctoral dissertations in ME have had BME emphases. As a result of these efforts, the coursework for the doctoral program has been largely developed. Thus, the proposed PhD program will not place an instructional burden as the curriculum are currently being delivered through the MSBME and the PhD in ME programs.

| 5. Evidence is provided that the necessary library volumes and serials; classroom, teaching laboratory, research laboratory, office, and any other type of physical space; equipment; appropriate fellowships, scholarships, and graduate assistantships; and appropriate clinical and internship sites are sufficient to initiate the program. | Met with Strength
The UCF Libraries journal and database holdings will meet the needs for the proposed program. A review of peer institution library resources shows that UCF has the necessary databases, journals, and books to support the BME PhD program. There are no additional library costs associated with the proposed BME PhD program. This is a consequence of prior investments made by the college in support of the BME MS program initiated in 2016.
The BME faculty have collectively 11,210 sq. ft of specialized research lab space located mainly in the College of Engineering and Computer Science and also at the UCF College of Medicine, and the UCF Nano Science and Technology Center. All faculty members have dedicated office space in Engineering I.
The MAE Department has 7,272 sq ft of teaching lab space that will support the BME PhD program. The program will have access to the UCF-COM anatomy lab for the prosection experiences in Mechanics of Biostructures I and II, which are currently taught at the UCF COM.
Additional resources include the CECS Ideas innovative suites, machine shop, 3D printing facilities, specialized characterization equipment at the UCF Materials Characterization Facility, the UCF Central Cleanroom facility with 3,500 sq. ft of class 1000 and 1,200 sq. ft of 1200 class clean rooms.
There is commitment from local industry such as Orlando Health and Advent Health for clinical experiences and collaborations. BME faculty have sustained grant support to offer graduate research assistantships and several funding opportunities are identified for additional support by the program. |

| 6. Evidence is provided that there is a need for more people to be educated in this program at this level. For all degree programs, if the program duplicates other degree programs in Florida, a convincing rationale for doing so is provided. The proposal contains realistic estimates of headcount and FTE students who will major in the proposed program and indicates steps to be taken to achieve a diverse student body. | Met with Strength

Evidence is provided from the Bureau of Labor Statistics that employment of bioengineers and biomedical engineers grew 27 percent from 2012 to 2019. This sector is projected to grow by 5 percent from 2019 to 2029, faster than the average for all occupations. Evidence shows Florida to be one of the states with the highest published employment growth of BME positions. From 2019-2020 growth in BME-related employment in Florida was nearly 4%.

In the CAVP review, a UF BME representative stated that it has an excess of applicants and there will definitely be applicant demand for any new BME doctoral program in the state. Three surveys (2017, 2019, and 2021), showed a strong interest in the proposed BME PhD program by current UCF undergraduates.

The proposal describes the four PhD in BME in the Florida SUS (UF, FIU, FSU/FAMU and USF) as well two private PhD in BME programs (University of Miami and FIT) most of which emphasize research at the cell and tissue levels and focus on drug delivery. At UCF such research is well-established at the Burnett School of Biomedical Sciences. Although there are some small overlaps with some of the existing programs, the proposed BME program has an emphasis on biomechanics and biofluids focusing on biomedical issues at the level of the body mainly concerned with treatment planning, rehabilitation, and medical device development and does not substantially duplicate other degree programs in Florida.

The proposal estimates a headcount of 11 in the first year which is reasonable given the number of current UCF ME PhD students who requested to transfer if the BME PhD is implemented. The head count is expected to grow to 27 by year 5 which is typical of the growth seen in previous PhD programs in MAE. The FTE is estimated at 0.75 average per year which is estimated based on the mix of graduate students progressing at different stages of the program. The first year is expected to generate 8.25 FTE and year five to generate 20.25 FTE.

The program is committed to achieve a diverse student body. UCF is a member of GEM (Graduate Engineering Minority) Consortium and the George Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation. The program has hired highly successful BME faculty members nearly half of whom are under-represented in STEM (three females and two African Americans). These faculty members serve as role models and attract students from varied backgrounds. The BME PhD degree is ranked 3rd among engineering PhD degrees awarded to women in 2021 at 36.9%. The proposal identifies several mechanisms to recruit a diverse student population.

| 7. The proposal provides a complete and realistic budget for the program, which reflects the text of the proposal, is comparable to the budgets of similar programs, and provides evidence that, in the event that resources within the institution are redirected to support the new program, such a redirection will not have a negative impact on undergraduate education. The proposal demonstrates a judicious use of resources and provides a convincing argument that the output of the program justifies the investment. | Met
The budget for the program primarily represents salary support for the 12 faculty currently engaged in BME research and teaching in the MAE department which will be re-directed to the program when approved. This will not negatively impact MAE.
There is a commitment of $200K in stipends from contracts and grants in year 1 which is escalated to $472 with the projected growth in year 5. This amounts to a roughly $22k/year stipend which is typical for engineering PhD stipends at UCF. But this somewhat low for the cost of living in central Florida and below stipend levels of aspirational peers. There are no graduate teaching assistantships associated with the program. |
| 8. The proposal provides evidence that the academic unit(s) associated with this new degree have been productive in teaching, research, and service. | Met with Strength
There is strong evidence provided that indicates that the faculty of the host academic unit, the Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering Department (MAE), is highly productive:
- MAE undergraduate student head count has more than doubled from 1,830 in AY 2010-2011 to 3,980 in Fall 2020,
- MAE graduate student count has more than doubled from 170 (118 MS and 52 PhD) in AY 2010-2011 to 401 (254 MS and 147 PhD) in Fall 2020
- in AY 2019-2020 the MAE faculty graduated 114 graduate students
- MAE research expenditures were nearly $7M in 2020
- MAE faculty members published 3+ journal papers on average
- MAE faculty are Fellows or Associate Fellows of national and international professional societies of such as ASME, AIAA, AIMBE, AAAS
- MAE faculty members are on the Editorial Boards of numerous professional journals such as ASME Journal of Heat Transfer, ASME Journal of Mechanisms and Robotics, and IEEE Transactions on Neural Systems and Rehabilitation Engineering.
MAE faculty members have won numerous highly prestigious and competitive early career research awards such as the ONR Young Investigator Award, the US DTRA Young Investigator Award, and DARPA/MTO Young Faculty Award. Nine members of the MAE faculty won NSF CAREER Awards (two of whom are identified as BME faculty in the proposal).
MAE faculty members have been recognized at the institution level though UCF Trustee Chair positions, Pegasus Professor Positions, and Reach-for the Stars Awards in recognition of excellence in teaching, research, and service. |
AES-2: Student Career Planning and Development – UCF Response to HB-1261

Meeting Date for Upcoming Action:

Purpose and Issues to be Considered:
The purpose of this action item is to present the University of Central Florida’s plan for the development of an online module to enhance career planning and development for undergraduate students during their first year of enrollment as required by HB 1261, passed in the 2021 legislative session.

Background Information:
To further promote informed consumer choice and give prospective and current students better access to student outcome data, the 2021 Legislature passed HB 1261 requiring the Board of Governors to create an online dashboard. The dashboard must present data, by academic discipline, of graduates of state universities, including the following information:
(a) Post-graduation median salary 1, 5, and 10 years after graduation.
(b) Median student loan debt.
(c) Debt-to-income ratio.
(d) Estimated monthly loan payment as a percentage of gross monthly income.
(e) The percentage of graduates who have continued their education beyond the baccalaureate level.

The online dashboard must be available by January 1, 2022, and a link to the dashboard must be prominently displayed on each university’s office of admissions website.

To comply with the new law, each university board of trustees must adopt procedures to connect undergraduate students to career planning, coaching, and related programs during the first academic year of the student’s enrollment. For these purposes, “undergraduate students” include full-time or part-time degree-seeking, first time in college students, transfer students and readmitted students.

The procedures must be approved by the Board of Governors and include placing a hold on student registration before the end of the first year of each student’s enrollment. To lift the hold and register for classes, each student must:
1. Register with the university’s career center.
2. Complete a career readiness training module provided by the career center.
3. Be directed to the dashboard.
4. Affirmatively indicate that he or she has been provided with the information required and is aware of the employment and wage prospects for his or her declared major.

Recommended Action:
Each university’s plan must be approved by its board of trustees and submitted to the Board of Governors by December 15, 2021. Board of Governors’ approval of a university’s plan is required by March 1, 2022. It is recommended that the UCF Board of Trustees approve the plan so that it may be submitted to the Board of Governors on or before December 15, 2021 for further approval.
Alternatives to Decision:
HB 1261 requires the Board of Trustees’ approval to be in compliance with state law. If an alternative plan is required, the Board will need to take formal action to approve the alternative plan on or before December 15, 2021.

Fiscal Impact and Source of Funding:
The career planning online module will be offered through UCF’s webcourse platform and is being designed in partnership with the divisions of Student Development and Enrollment Services and Student Learning and Academic Success. Ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in carry forward E&G funds has been provided by Student Learning and Academic Success to cover costs associated with video production and editing of portions of the career planning and development module.

AES-3: Tenure with Hire

☐ Information  ☐ Discussion  ☒ Action

Meeting Date for Upcoming Action: ________________

Purpose and Issues to be Considered:
The recommendation of a faculty member for tenure shall signify that the president and the Board of Trustees believe that the employee will continue to make significant and sustained professional contributions to the university and the academic community.

The primary purpose of tenure is to protect academic freedom. The award of tenure shall provide annual reappointment until voluntary resignation, retirement, removal for just cause, or layoff.

Background Information:
New faculty members are hired each year with tenure. Normally, such faculty members have earned tenure at their previous institution and meet UCF’s requirements for tenure. For others, tenure is part of the hiring package when senior faculty members are hired for administrative positions. Department faculty members and the university’s administrative officers have approved granting tenure to these faculty members.

Recommended Action:
The department, college and Provost support the recommendations for tenure with hire.

Alternatives to Decision:
N/A

Fiscal Impact and Source of Funding:
Faculty are considered employees of the university and like other employees, compensation is negotiated during the hiring process. Recommendations for tenure are considered independently from compensation. Faculty who are awarded tenure will have annual reappointment until voluntary resignation, retirement, removal for just cause, or layoff.

UCF-4.015 Fraud Prevention and Detection

(1) Applicability. This Regulation is applicable to all members of the University of Central Florida (University or UCF) community, including all UCF Board of Trustees’ (Board) members, University employees, students, volunteers, and all contractors and guests attending, doing business with, or affiliating with the University or any of its employees, organizations, components, campuses, facilities, or events.

(2) Definitions.

(a) Fraud: An intentional misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact for the purpose of obtaining a benefit that would not otherwise be received, or inducement of another to act upon the intentional misrepresentation or concealment to his or her detriment.

(b) Fraud Prevention: Hindering, precluding, stopping, or intercepting the performance of fraud.

(c) Fraud Detection: Finding, discovering, or bringing out facts related to the occurrence of fraud.

(d) Employee: A person who performs services for, and under the control and direction of, UCF.

(3) Fraud Prevention and Detection Criteria. The Board of Trustees is committed to creating an organizational culture that proactively identifies potential fraud scenarios, discourages the commitment of fraud, and provides encouragement to report potential fraud. This Regulation establishes University criteria related to appropriate institutional controls and risk management framework to provide reasonable assurance that fraudulent activities within the University’s areas of responsibility are prevented, detected, reported, and investigated. Accordingly, the University hereby identifies the following fraud prevention and detection criteria:

(a) Zero tolerance. The University has zero tolerance for fraudulent activities and will promote consistent organizational behavior and institute preventive measures and controls designed to deter, prevent and/or detect fraudulent activities.

(b) Acts constituting fraud. Examples of fraud may include, but are not limited to:
   1. Forgery or alteration of any document or account belonging to UCF;
   2. The willful and/or intentional destruction, alteration or concealment of any records to be used in the conduct of an audit, bid/vendor selection, contract execution, or pursuit of debt financing;
   3. Misappropriation of funds, securities, supplies, equipment, or other assets of UCF;
   4. Theft of a check or other diversion of payment intended for an internal or external party;
   5. Participation in any activity that is intended to initiate an identity theft scheme; and
   6. Any similar or related inappropriate conduct or irregularity and/or dishonest or fraudulent act while performing University functions.

(c) Anti-Fraud Framework and Strategies.

   1. Framework. Under the direction of the president and with assistance from other members of management and University Audit, the university will develop and maintain an anti-fraud framework, which shall include, but not be limited to:
      a. Committing to combating fraud by creating an organizational culture and structure conducive to fraud risk management through awareness, training and a “tone at the top”;
b. Planning regular fraud risk assessments using scenario analysis and similar methods to identify potential fraud scenarios and assessing the likelihood and impact of these risk scenarios to determine the University’s overall fraud risk profile;

c. Designing and implementing a strategy with specific preventative and detective control activities to mitigate assessed fraud risks associated with potential scenarios and fostering collaboration at all levels of the University to help ensure effective implementation of the identified strategies and control activities; and,

d. Evaluating the success of the adopted framework based on actual fraud losses and changes in known fraud scenarios using a risk-based/cost-benefit approach and adapting current activities to improve future fraud risk management.

2. Management Commitment. All levels of management are responsible for establishing and following process controls as applicable for their division or unit in accordance with this regulation. Management is responsible for ensuring their controls are functioning effectively and designed to prevent and/or detect fraud. Any instance of fraud, misappropriation, or irregularity that is detected or suspected must be reported immediately to the University’s Chief Audit Executive. Management shall not initiate their own fraud investigations or hire external parties to initiate a fraud investigation.

3. Division of Audit. University Audit has the primary responsibility for the investigation of all suspected fraudulent acts as defined by this regulation, along with developing and maintaining the university’s anti-fraud framework to prevent, detect and report fraud. As necessary, University Audit will work with the Board and management to obtain external parties with subject matter expertise and/or professional independence to perform or assist with fraud investigations.

4. Risk Assessment. University Audit, with the assistance and active participation of other divisions, will periodically perform a fraud risk assessment and advise the Board and management of potential actions and activities that could reduce the risk of fraud.

(d) Delineation of Responsibilities. The delineation of responsibilities for the prevention, detection, reporting, investigation, and remediation of fraud shall operate in accordance with the roles and responsibilities outlined in this regulation.

(e) Reporting.

1. Requirement to Report. University employees, consultants, vendors, persons doing business with UCF, or DSO employees, who have suspicion of a fraud or misappropriation, shall immediately notify University Audit. Complaints may be made anonymously.

2. Requirement to Act in Good Faith. Anyone reporting an irregularity that is detected or suspected must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information provided. Allegations made maliciously or with knowledge of their falsity may be subject to appropriate institutional disciplinary action.

3. Complainant Notification Procedure. Reports of fraud should be made to either of the following:

   a. University Audit. University Audit may be emailed at audit@ucf.edu and/or contacted at (407) 823-2889 https://universityaudit.ucf.edu.
Persons seeking whistle-blower protection should file reports of fraud directly to University Audit.

b. UCF IntegrityLine. The University’s IntegrityLine allows anonymous reporting and may be used to submit reports of potential fraud:
   http://www.ucfintegrityline.com/.

(f) Rights and Protections of the Reporting Individual.
1. Confidentiality. The University will treat all information received confidentially to the extent permitted under applicable law.
2. Whistleblower Protection. University Audit shall initially assess each reported complaint when there is a known complainant to determine if the allegations fall under the Whistle-blower Act (Sections 112.3187 – 112.31895, Florida Statutes). If the reported allegations fall under the Whistle-blower Act, that employee who reported the wrongful acts, or suspected acts in good faith, is protected against retaliation for making such report and the identity of the whistle-blower is confidential and exempt from disclosure. Additional whistle-blower information is outlined in UCF 2-010 Whistle-blower Determination and Investigation Policy.  https://policies.ucf.edu/documents/2-010.pdf
3. Retaliation. UCF prohibits any form of retaliation against individuals who make a good faith report of potential misconduct including fraud or suspected fraud or for their participation in an investigation into misconduct. An employee or other person who lawfully, appropriately, and in good faith reports suspected fraud or other improper activity shall not be discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, or suffer adverse personnel action of any kind because of such individual’s lawful actions in providing information or assistance to an investigation into fraudulent or other inappropriate activity. Additional information is outlined in UCF 2-700 Reporting Misconduct and Protection from Retaliation Policy. https://policies.ucf.edu/documents/2-700.pdf

(g) Alert Process.
1. General. The results/status of ongoing investigations will not be disclosed or discussed with anyone, unless required by law, regulation, or University policy. When a final report is issued, University Audit will abide by the notification guidance outlined in Board of Governors’ Regulation 4.001.
2. Substantiated Fraudulent Activities. If the investigation substantiates that any fraudulent activities have occurred, University Audit will issue reports to appropriate designated University personnel and external parties as required to provide details and support for this conclusion.
3. Notification to Board of Governors. The Chief Audit Executive shall timely notify the Board of Governors Office of Inspector General and Director of Compliance (OIGC) of any significant and credible allegation(s) of fraud, waste, or mismanagement against a University Board of Trustees’ member or the president; and shall provide copies of all final investigative reports to the Board of Governors, if the allegations are determined to be significant and credible.

(h) Actions.
1. General. Employees determined to have participated in fraudulent acts will be subject to disciplinary action (i.e., demotion, suspension, termination, etc.) in accordance with University policies and regulations and any applicable collective bargaining agreements.
2. Criminal, Civil, or Administrative. Criminal, civil and/or other administrative actions may also be taken against any person or entity who is found to have participated in unlawful acts or who knowingly withheld information that would have revealed fraudulent or other improper activities.

3. Non-employee. Failure to comply by a consultant, vendor, contractor, outside agency, or person doing business with UCF or in any other relationship with UCF could result in cancellation of the business or other relationship between the entity and UCF.

(4) Periodic Review. This regulation shall be reviewed every five years for currency and consistency with applicable Board of Governors and University regulations. The Board of Trustees shall be notified, at least annually, of the efficacy of the University’s antifraud framework and any necessary revisions to improve the framework.

DISC – 2: Anatomy of Good Governance

Purpose and Issues to be Considered:
The purpose of this discussion is to provide the Board with continuing education. Dr. Sally Mason, Senior Consultant and Senior Fellow, Association of Governing Boards (AGB) and President Emerita of the University of Iowa, will moderate a presentation that addresses the role of a governing Board in public higher education, including AGB’s Principles of Trusteeship.

Background Information:
In 2019, AGB provided several recommendations to reform overall governance of the UCF Board of Trustees. One of the recommendations was to create a Board Orientation and Development Program to orient new trustees and reorient longer-serving trustees. The goal of the program is to enable newer board members to add value more quickly and the veterans to update their working awareness of the scope and limits of effective board responsibility and governance.

In June 2020, a formal Board Orientation and Development Program was presented to the Governance Committee. This plan outlines a structure and process for onboarding new trustees and providing continuing education to the full Board.

Mission
The University of Central Florida is a public multi-campus, metropolitan research university that stands for opportunity. The university anchors the Central Florida city-state in meeting its economic, cultural, intellectual, environmental and societal needs by providing high-quality, broad based education and experienced-based learning; pioneering scholarship and impactful research; enriched student development and leadership growth; and highly relevant continuing education and public service initiatives that address pressing local, state, national, and international issues in support of the global community.
Good Board Governance Is Simple

What’s needed:

• The right people on the board,
• The board addresses the right issues, and
• Board members engage in the right way, among themselves and with others.

Taken together, these are the enabling conditions of good governance.

Yet each can be difficult to achieve and sustain. Simple, but not easy.
Right People: A Good Board Is...

• Diverse
• All members actively participate in the work of the board
• All members are committed to the institution they serve
• All members are well informed about the roles and responsibilities of trusteeship
Questions for discerning right composition

1. Do all our members fully understand the role and responsibilities of the board?
2. Do we provide a thorough orientation for new members as well as ongoing opportunities for board development?
3. Does each board member effectively apply his or her unique skills, expertise, background, and experience to the work of the board?
4. Do all our members come to meetings well prepared? Do all participate in board discussions?
The Focus of the Board

• A good board focuses on the big picture and takes the long view.
• A good board uses its time productively.
• A good board seeks and obtains the information it needs.
Role of the Board
Questions For Discerning Right Focus

1. Are we as a board focusing on the right things in our deliberations and decisions?
2. Are we spending our time in board and committee meetings productively? Are our meetings structured effectively to enable us to fulfill our roles as trustees?
3. Do we focus consistently on the big picture and bring a strategic vision to bear on the matters that come before us?
The Relationships of the Board

• Of paramount importance is the board’s relationship with the president
• Relationships founded on mutual respect and trust
• Functional and appropriate relationships with the board’s partners in shared governance
• Relationships with internal and external constituencies support consultation and advocacy.
Questions For Discerning Right Relationships

1. Do we have a healthy, transparent, and collaborative relationship with the president? Does our board chair communicate regularly with the president?

2. Do we encourage diverse points of view and respectful debate? Are the perspectives and opinions of all members welcomed and respected?

3. Do all our members respect the confidentiality of board deliberations? Or, where “sunshine laws” require open meetings and records, do we all strive to ensure that our commitment to follow both the letter and the spirit of the laws does not impose undue constraints on either the candor of our deliberations or our willingness to make tough decisions?

4. Are all our members fully engaged? Do we encourage participation by all members in our deliberations, or are our discussions dominated by a few?

5. Do we have cliques or political factions on our board?

6. Do we have robust and transparent communication among members and between committees and the full board?
